Section D: Data Protection, Access to Medical Reports and Declaration – the Declaration must be signed by the patient or the main member if the patient is a dependant under the age of 18

The words 'Aetna' and 'other Aetna entities' mean Aetna Global Benefits (UK) Limited and include any other Aetna International Inc. group company as the context requires.

Data Protection Notice

Aetna Global Benefits (UK) Limited ('Aetna', 'we') is the data controller of personal data collected and processed for the purposes set out in this document. Aetna considers personal data or personal 'information' to be confidential. We protect the privacy of that information in accordance with applicable privacy laws and regulations, as well as our own company privacy policies.

These laws and regulations include, but are not limited to, the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act Privacy Rules (HIPAA Privacy Rules), the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), the UK Data Protection Act 2018 and any applicable EU member state legislation and derogations. We will use your personal data to determine eligibility and provide a quotation to you or to your broker; onboarding you to the plan, process payments, premiums and claims; managing, administering and improving your policy; investigating and responding to complaints; contact you with information about your plan and for the purposes of providing healthcare or wellness advice; fraud prevention together with any other regulatory checks; establish, exercise or defend legal claims or rights and to protect, exercise and enforce our rights, property or safety. Where your health data is used for any of the above we rely on the insurance condition provided under the UK Data Protection Act 2018, which means we don't need to acquire your consent for the processing.

We retain your personal data for as long as necessary to provide you the benefits under your insurance plan, until such time as any claim under the insurance policy is concluded, until the limitation for exercising any legal rights has expired or for compliance with any legal or regulatory requirements. We may disclose information about you in various ways, including, but not limited to: health care operations, treatment, disclosure to other covered entities, plan administration, research, business associates, industry regulation, law enforcement, legal proceedings and public welfare.

In all situations other than those described above, we will ask for your written authorization before using or disclosing information about you. We will not send any personal data or health information outside the EEA unless the appropriate protections are in place, or unless there are emergency medical ground for doing so.

To help us make sure that your personal information remains accurate and up-to-date, please inform us of any changes.

You have the right to access to your personal information, to request correction, erasure, restriction of processing, transfer of your information, and object to the processing of your personal data.

If you would like to exercise any of your rights relating to your personal data, or enquiry any further information, please contact our designated Data Protection Officer:

Access to Medical Reports Act 1988

In order to process your claim, we may need to apply for a medical report from any medical practitioner that has attended you. We will require your consent before we can apply for this.

Under the law, you can:

- 1. Give your consent. If you choose this option, your medical practitioner will send the report direct to us.
- 2. Request to see the medical report before it is sent to us. If you choose this option, we will notify the medical practitioner of your request when we apply for your records. You must contact your medical practitioner within 21 days of our notifying you that we have requested a medical report about you to make arrangements to see the report. If you fail to make contact within 21 days, the medical practitioner will be entitled to send the medical report direct to us. You also have a right to request the correction of any information you believe is misleading or incorrect. After you have seen the report, you must give your consent before the medical practitioner can release the report to us.

3. You have a right to withhold your consent. Please note that if you choose this option, we may be unable to accept or process your claim. You have a right to ask your medical practitioner for any report (whether or not you had previously requested to see it) we have requested within six months of its having been supplied to us. Your medical practitioner is entitled to withhold some or all of the information contained in the report if (a) he feels that it may be harmful to you or (b) it would indicate his intentions in respect of you or (c) would reveal the identity of another person without their consent (other than that provided by a health professional in their professional capacity in relation to your care). Your medical practitioner may also charge you for any of these services.

Declaration

I declare that all the details given on this Claim form are true and accurate and that I have not missed out any details important to this claim. I understand that if this claim is found to be fraudulent, in whole or part, I may be committing a criminal offence and that this may invalidate the plan and make me liable to prosecution. For this medical claim I authorise any medical practitioner, specialist, therapist or other relevant establishment who has attended me/the patient in the past, or is attending me/the patient at present, to give any details that may be asked for by the insurer or any authorised administrator

I confirm that I give explicit consent, within the provisions of the Data Protection Act 1998, (on behalf of myself and any family members specified in this form) for Aetna Insurance Company Limited (the insurer) to process our personal information with respect to our membership and I confirm that I have brought the Data Protection Notice to the attention of these family members.

(Our full terms and conditions and details of our privacy policy can be found at www.interglobalpmi.com)

I authorise and request any hospital, specialist, physician or other health provider to furnish the insurer or its duly authorised agent acting on its behalf with such information as the insurer or such agent may seek from them in connection with any treatment or other services provided to me or my dependant/s for the purpose of the insurer considering this claim.

I have been advised of my rights under the Access to Medical Reports Act 1988.

I do (not)* wish to see a copy of any medical report before it is sent to the insurer. (*Delete the word NOT if you wish to see a copy of the medical report before it is sent to the insurer).

If coverage provided by this policy violates or will violate any United States (US), United Nations (UN), European Union (EU) or other applicable economic or trade sanctions, the coverage is immediately considered invalid. For example, Aetna companies cannot make payments or reimburse for health care or other claims or services if it violates a financial sanction regulation. This includes sanctions related to a blocked person or entity, or a country under sanction by the US, unless permitted under a valid written Office of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC) license. For more information on OFAC, visit www.treasury.gov/resource-center/sanctions/ Pages/default.aspx.

Plans are underwritten by Aetna Insurance Company Limited, registered in England (Company Registration No. 05956141), which is authorised by the Prudential Regulation Authority and regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority and the Prudential Regulation Authority (Firm Reference No. 458505). Plans are administered on behalf of the insurer by Aetna Global Benefits (UK) Limited, registered in England (Company Registration No. 03554885), which is authorised and regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority (Firm Reference No. 312279).
